Solo: Una vida en busca de esperanza y un hogar (Enfoque a la Familia) (Spanish Edition) R. B. Mitchell

Mitchell es un respetado asesor financiero y un defensor dedicado a los jóvenes, pero lo que no se conoce mucho es su tumultuosa niñez. Los escritos de sus memorias revelan su vida en el orfanato después de que su mamá lo abandonó a los tres años y sus luchas para encontrar amor, aceptación mientras que aprendía a confiar. Él conocía a su desquiciada madre, quien una vez lo rapto del orfanato, pero no tenía ninguna memoria real de su padre, quien intentó suicidarse pero terminó con daños cerebrales. Su abuela materna era el ancla del niño, pero no podía criarlo, lo que solo añadía a su confusión. Él titubeaba sobre el abismo del desastre mientras maduraba, pero a los 17 años oró: «Jesús, si eres real, entra a mi pesadilla. Perdona mis pecados y cámbiame». La historia de Mitchell es inspiradora tanto en sus dimensiones espirituales como en su narrativa convencional al estilo Horatio Alger. Los hechos de su caso también se pueden comprobar, algo en lo que tanto Mitchell y su publicadora se esforzaron en asegurar a través del sitio en la web www.amillionlittleproofs.com, donde se ofrecen documentos en versión pdf del pasado de Mitchell. Los escritos de sus memorias apelarán a los adultos con pasados difíciles, a los que trabajan con niños con problemas y a cualquiera que se deleite en ver a Dios transformar una vida.
