Sicilia, 1943: mentre gli Alleati sbarcano in Sicilia, la mafia si prepara ad essere protagonista dei nuovi scenari politici del dopoguerra collaborando con gli americani e cercando di insediare i suoi uomini ai posti di potere, mentre cerca di trarre ancora tutti i guadagni possibili dalla borsa nera e dalle connivenze con il fascismo, che ormai sferra gli ultimi colpi di coda.

Le persone integre, quelle che rifiutano la collusione, vengono eliminate senza pietà: è il caso del professor Di Salvo, che muore in un attentato in cui è sterminata anche la sua famiglia. Per un caso fortuito, si salverà soltanto il piccolo Santino, che resta solo al mondo. Ma un personaggio molto singolare entrerà in gioco per prendersi cura di lui.

Questo romanzo, dove è protagonista la “piccola storia” quotidiana delle persone, che scorre a fianco della Grande Storia, conduce anche a una riflessione più intima e profonda sul significato della libertà, della responsabilità, della giustizia, della comprensione e, in definitiva, della difficoltà e della grandezza di essere uomini.
