Goodbye Italia (RX Castelvecchi) (Italian Edition) Cinzia Dato Giurickovic, Silvana Prosperi

Dalla manager televisiva all'architetto designer, fino all'unica docente donna di matematica pura al prestigioso Mit di Boston. Sono le italiane costrette a emigrare per trovare quelle opportunità e quei riconoscimenti che il loro Paese nega e che invece hanno trovato negli Stati Uniti, dove l'impegno e il merito vengono premiati e dove il lavoro in rosa non fa paura. Perché l'impiego femminile è il più importante motore di sviluppo mondiale, e investire sulle donne significa investire sul futuro. Cinzia Dato e Silvana Prosperi affrontano questa problematica attraverso il racconto di ventisette professioniste che hanno scelto di vivere e lavorare in un Paese diverso, pur mantenendo con quello d'origine un forte legame. Il racconto delle loro esperienze negli States offre lo spunto per una riflessione più ampia su discriminazione, fuga delle intelligenze, nepotismo e burocrazia, ed è un atto d'accusa contro la miopia di classi dirigenti ingessate e il disinteresse delle istituzioni. Uno sguardo lucido sulla crisi del Sistema Italia, ma allo stesso tempo uno stimolo per rendere il Bel Paese più moderno e competitivo.
